LUKOIL AND YUGRA SIGN SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENT ON COOPERATION

Vagit Alekperov, President of LUKOIL, and Natalia Komarova, Governor of the Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Okrug-Yugra, signed a supplemental agreement to the Cooperation Agreement between the oil company and the regional government, in Moscow today.

Funds will be allocated to outfit with equipment the branch of Moscow's State Academic Maly Theater of Russia, now under construction in Kogalym. Innovative technologies, to be applied in the new theater, will help meet technical challenges and bring to life artistic concepts in stage performances. The new theater will be housed in what formerly was a cultural entertainment center called Yantar (amber), now under major refurbishment. Construction work is to be completed next year.
