LUKOIL SIGNS A SUPPLEMENTARY COOPERATION AGREEMENT WITH TRADE UNIONS ASSOCIATION

Vagit Alekperov, PJSC LUKOIL President, and Georgy Kiradiev, Chairman of the Council of the International Association of Trade Union Organizations of PJSC LUKOIL (IATUO), signed a Supplementary Agreement between the employer and IATUO extending it until 2020.

A new version of the 2018-2020 Agreement between PJSC LUKOIL and IATUO for international organizations of the Group was approved. It is connected with the changes in legal status, adopted addenda related to social issues, labor protection and technical labor inspection.

The signing of these documents reinforces the longstanding partnership between the administration and the IATUO, and reiterates LUKOIL's status of a socially-oriented company', - Georgy Kiradiev stressed.

Social responsibility of the Company stands not only for accurate budget tax allocation, decent wages for its employees and strict observance of laws, but also for our voluntary obligations to improve the living conditions of the local residents in the regions of our presence', - Vagit Alekperov noted.
