LUKOIL PRESIDENT MEETS WITH GOVERNOR OF VORONEZH REGION

President of LUKOIL Vagit Alekperov and the Governor of Voronezh Region Alexey Gordeyev held a working meeting, in the town of Borisoglebsk today. They discussed further development of the company's social and charity projects in the region.

During his business trip, the LUKOIL President visited OAO Borkhimmash, a supplier of heat-exchange equipment for companies of the fuel-and-energy complex, and a kindergarten, opened for 140 children in Borisoglebsk in the autumn of 2016. The preschool facility, with an aggregate area of almost 2,700 square meters, was named A Seven Color Flower after a Russian fairy tale. The construction was financed by LUKOIL and a foundation, established by Mr. Alekperov and dubbed Our Future, for regional social projects.

Traditionally, LUKOIL also sponsors regional development projects and supports sports events in Voronezh region.
