LUKOIL GAS STATIONS APP AVAILABLE FOR HUAWEI AND HONOR

PJSC LUKOIL has released its mobile application LUKOIL GAS STATIONS on AppGallery and introduced first full service with integrated loyalty program supporting HMS (Huawei Mobile Services). AppGallery is designed for devices such as HUAWEI and HONOR.

The application was released in response to user requests as LUKOIL GAS STATIONS entered the top six most wished services for Russian HUAWEI and HONOR users.

Full-fledged support of HMS services expands the app integration with other Huawei products.

As of today, over 3.5 million car owners use the Company's free service with a registered loyalty card. LUKOIL GAS STATIONS is also among the top ten AppStore Business apps.

LUKOIL GAS STATIONS allows non-contact fill-up as well as issuing a virtual loyalty card, receiving substantial discounts and personal offers, building routes to gas stations, learning about services and fuel prices at each gas station, and many other things. This service includes an integrated partner platform with over 160 online stores where points are credited to the LUKOIL card for purchases.

Information:
AppGallery is ranked among the three most common app stores together with Google Play and AppStore and is available in more than 170 countries around the world.
