LUKOIL TEAM WINS A CONTEST FOR BEST QUALIFICATION ASSESSMENT TOOLS

A joint team of experts from LUKOIL-Technologies and LUKOIL-Permnefteorgsintez (wholly-owned subsidiaries of PJSC LUKOIL) won the first prize in the National Competition for the Best Qualification Assessment Tools in the personnel competency assessment category. The LUKOIL team has presented a set of theoretical and practical tests for professional exams designed for oil and gas pump operators (level 4 qualification).

The contest was organized by the National Qualification Development Agency with support of the Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of the Russian Federation to identify and promote best practices in applying tools of the national qualification system.

Qualification assessment tools presented by the participants were appraised from the point of view of testology and qualification assessment methodology. The winner was selected based on consideration of such aspects as variety of test types, creative wording, unconventional approach (use of case reviews, video and audio materials, infographics, etc).
