LUKOIL TO FINANCE RESTORATION OF THE ALEXANDROV COMPANY

LUKOIL will provide financial support to restore the A.V. Alexandrov Song and Dance Company of the Russian Armed Forces.

Devastated by the tragedy, LUKOIL's employees mourn together with the families and friends of the deceased artists of the choir and its director, Lieutenant General Valery Khalilov. The tragic death of the 64 members of the ensemble is a grievous loss to Russian and world's culture.

The financial assistance is rendered to attract new talented dancers and singers to the ensemble. The restoration of the company and the Red Army Choir will help promote Russia's culture both in the country and internationally.
